

11 February 2011

CHARITY ON THE MENU

On Thursday, 10 February over 100 people took part in a fundraising dinner at L'Academie Hotel to raise money for the victims of the Queensland floods.

Peter Dowling, Shadow Minister for Flood Recovery officially welcomed guests and thanked them for their generosity.

“The community has shown a great amount of support for victims of the floods. Your donations this evening will assist affected communities to recover and rebuild,” he said.

Shafston School of Hospitality students prepared and served the three dinner menu for the evening. Guests dined on Crystal Bay Scallops with Green Papaya Salad, followed by Bangalow Sweet Pork Belly “Asian Style” with Bok Choy Jasmine Rice and Drunken Peanut Sauce.

L'Academie was overwhelmed by the support from sponsors which included QFFS, Smashing Bottles, Coca-Cola, Gotzinger, and Grinders Coffee.

The event raised over $10,000 for the Flood Appeal.

For further information please contact Sonia Stichbury at Shafston (07) 3249 4101.

END